Abstract

This is where the abstract should be placed. It should consist of one paragraph and a concise summary of the material discussed in the article below. It is preferable not to use footnotes in the abstract or the title. The acknowledgement for funding organisations etc. is placed in a separate section at the end of the text. This shall be informative and suitable for direct inclusion in abstracting services as a self-contained article. It shall not exceed 200 words. It shall summarise the general scope and also state the main results obtained, methods used, the value of the work and the conclusions drawn. No figure numbers, table numbers, references or displayed mathematical expressions to be included. We wish you success with the preparation of your manuscript.

1 Introduction

The Proceedings will contain all the papers accepted for the conference. All papers submitted will have undergone a rigorous peer review process by the Programme Committee of the Conference. Comments of reviewers are sent to the authors.

Authors are asked to prepare and submit electronic versions of their full papers according to the instructions below.

2 Manuscript preparation

Full papers must be typed in English. This instruction page is an example of the format and font sizes to be used.

It follows detailed instructions valid for any computer. The title of the paper is typed in CAPITAL LETTERS (boldface 18pt) and centred on the page. The author's name is typed in capital and lower case bold letters and centred on the page. Directly under the author's name in capital and lower case letters and also centred is the author's affiliation, address, plus e-mail address of (at least) the corresponding author. Manuscripts must be typed single spaced using 10 point characters. Only Times, Times Roman, Times New Roman and Symbol fonts are accepted. The text must fall within a frame of 18 cm x 24 cm centred on an A4 page (21 cm x 29.7 cm). Paragraphs are separated by 6 points and with no indentation. The text of the full papers is written in two columns and justified. Each column has a width of 8.8 cm and the columns are separated by a margin of 0.4 cm. Your paper must be no more than 6 pages in length. Do not number the pages. The final format in which the papers will appear in the Proceedings will be a PDF file. Authors are requested to send a PDF file of their final paper to be included directly in the Proceedings. Do not lock your PDF file – this may result in your paper not being published.

2.1 Figures and tables

Figures and tables should be centred in the column, numbered consecutively throughout the text, and each should have a caption underneath it (see for example Table 1). Care should be taken that the lettering is not too small. All figures and tables should be included in the electronic versions of the full paper.

n	$n!$
2	2
3	6

Table 1: This is an example of a table caption.

2.2 Equations

Equations should be typed within the text, centred, and should be numbered consecutively throughout the text. They should be referred to in the text as Equation (n). Their numbers should be typed in parentheses, flush right, as in the following example.

$$PA + A'P - PBR^{-1}B'P + Q = 0. \quad (1)$$

3 Generating a PDF file

The PDF format will be the final format under which the papers will appear in the Proceedings. Therefore you are advised to submit your paper as PDF document.

4 Electronic submission of the full paper

A PDF version of your final paper is required. It should be expected that after your submission, your final paper will be published directly from the file you send without any further proof-reading. Therefore, it is advisable for the authors to print a hard copy of their final version and read it carefully. Please bear in mind that the proceedings are printed in black and white so take special note of any colours you have used in diagrams.

Acknowledgements

The acknowledgement for funding organisations etc. should be placed in a separate section at the end of the text. Acknowledgements should be placed after the conclusion and before the references section. Details of grants, financial aid and other special assistance should be noted.

Thank you for your cooperation in complying with these instructions.

The list of references should be ordered alphabetically according to the first author surname. All references should be cited in the text, and using square brackets such as [1] and [2,3].
